“NOTICE TO PROSPECTIVE DEGREE PROGRAM STUDENTS

California Education Code (CEC) §94897(p) requires Kingston University to disclose to prospective students prior to enrollment that Kingston University and its degree and certificate programs are unaccredited, and any known limitations of the degree, including all of the following:

1. A graduate of the degree program may be ineligible to sit for applicable licensure exam in California and other states. Graduates from Kingston University’s Master of Science in Oriental Medicine are eligible to sit for the California Acupuncture Licensure Exam.
2. A degree program that is unaccredited or a degree from an unaccredited institution is not recognized for some employment positions, including, but not limited to, positions with the State of California.
3. A student enrolled in an unaccredited institution is not eligible for federal financial aid programs. Kingston University does not currently participate in any federal financial assistance programs. The University does not provide financial aid to students.”
